

Patrol Officer

Shippensburg University is currently accepting applications for the position of Patrol Officer. This position will work a regular shift. Starting salary: $33,466 annually including an extensive benefits package and tuition waiver for employee and dependents.

Responsible for providing police services and protection for University property, grounds, facilities, residents and visitors. Performs traffic and crowd control duties enforcing all traffic laws and regulations of the Commonwealth and the University. Investigates traffic accidents and prepares accident reports. Investigates crimes and/or reported crimes making full report in writing of the findings. Patrols and secures buildings and grounds during shift.

Shippensburg University employees value teamwork and collaboration, are dependable, take initiative, solve problems effectively, communicate clearly and support organizational change. University employees work closely with individuals of diverse backgrounds and race, as well as those of differing religious affiliations, sexual orientation and gender. They must possess good interpersonal skills and be able to communicate effectively with all members of the campus community.

Interested candidates must have completed or be able to complete the requirements of Act 120. Preference will be given to those candidates who have successfully completed Act 120 certification. Candidates must meet the requirements of the department's firearms qualification process. Candidates must have or be able to obtain a valid PA driver's license. Candidates must meet the qualifications regarding strength, agility and health. Candidates should have one year of police experience or any equivalent experience or training. An associate degree with major course work in police science, police administration or a closely related field may be substituted for one year of police experience. Successful performance in an on-campus interview is required.

Additional information, qualifications and applications are available at www.ship.edu/HR. Qualified candidates must submit an official Shippensburg University application for employment to the Human Resources Department, Shippensburg University, 1871 Old Main Drive, Shippensburg, PA 17257 by August 25, 2010. Materials received or post-marked after this date will not be accepted.

Shippensburg University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Individuals from traditionally underrepresented populations are encouraged to apply.