

The Transportation Security Administration/Federal Air Marshal Service (FAMS) recently released two job vacancy announcements for the position of Federal Air Marshals in its New York (VA# FAM-F10-F001) and Washington Field Offices (VA# FAM-F10-F002). The vacancies are full-time/permanent entry level positions (SV-1801-G) and are open to all United States citizens who wish to apply. The FAMS continues to seek the best, most highly competitive and qualified candidates for the FAM positions and we highly encourage you to share this information with potential candidates in your respective organizations who may have an interest in becoming a Federal Air Marshal.

For additional details about the FAM position and how to apply, potential candidates should visit the following web-links below and adhere to the provided instructions. The vacancy announcements will close on November 30, 2009, at 11:59 P.M., and no additional applications will be accepted after the closing date. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Scott Pickett, Special Agent in Charge, Manpower Operations at (703) 487-3444.
